Summary of Changes

Modifies the use of transmit 7 in MAX A-11 DE (section 79.3).

Describes the reference to "payments for individuals" in the list of account attributes (section 79.4\(h\)).

79.1 What is the MAX system and how do I report data in MAX?

MAX A-11 Data Entry (MAX) is a computer system used to collect and process most of the information required for preparing the budget. MAX compiles the budget data using a series of schedules, or sets of data, within the MAX database. Each schedule describes a view of the President's Budget. An overview of all the schedules is provided in section 79.5.

To submit the data to populate the budget schedules, appropriations language, and narrative text, you must use the web application, accessible here:

<https://a11de.max.gov>

Consult the MAX A-11 User's Guide for a reference document on how to use MAX.

You report data at the budget account level in MAX (see section 20.11\(a\)). This information is aggregated to provide the totals presented in many of the tables in the President's Budget. Most amounts are reported in millions of dollars. The preferred method of rounding numbers is to the nearest even million (for example, both $11,500,000 and $12,500,000 would round to 12); however, use of standard off-the-shelf packages that round up when a number is exactly mid-way between two whole numbers is acceptable (for example, $11,500,000 would round to 12 and $12,500,000 would round to 13).

You must use MAX to submit your budget data. If data has already been entered for a particular account and transmittal code, you can retrieve and change the data using MAX. For a new account or transmittal code, you must create new shells of schedules before you can enter data. The User's Guide provides instructions on how to insert and edit schedules. You can also use MAX to generate several diagnostic reports.

MAX contains information on budget account titles and classifications and controls data entry. Before you can submit your budget data, an account must be established. Section 79.4 provides information on how to request new accounts or request changes to existing accounts.

MAX contains numerous crosschecks or error messages ("edit checks") to help ensure the consistency of the data. You can see all of the edit messages in the MAX Edit Checks report on the Budget Season Reports page.

79.2 What should I know about account identification codes?

OMB, in consultation with the Department of the Treasury, assigns account identification codes. These codes are used to store and access data in MAX, run reports, and identify accounts in OMB and Treasury documents and MAX reports. While you can access your accounts in MAX without knowing the account number, you are required to perform several steps that can be eliminated if you do know it. Each account can be identified in several ways. For example, you can access your accounts in MAX by entering either the OMB account number or the Treasury account number. Regardless of which number you use, familiarity with the following coding options is helpful. See exhibit 79D for examples of various account code combinations.

- OMB agency code—Each department or independent agency has a unique three digit number assigned by OMB (see appendix C for list).
- OMB bureau code—Each bureau within each department or major agency has an agency-unique two-digit number assigned by OMB. Agencies that do not have distinct bureaus have a bureau code of "00" (see appendix C for list). Most receipt accounts do not have a distinct bureau and have a bureau code of "00".
- Treasury agency code—Each agency also has a two-digit number assigned by Treasury (see appendix C for list).
- Common Government-wide Accounting Classification (CGAC) agency code—Each department or independent agency has a unique three digit number assigned by Treasury (see appendix C for list). Agencies and OMB are in the process of transitioning from the Treasury agency code to the CGAC agency code.
- Account symbol—Each account has an agency-unique number assigned by Treasury or, in the case of merged accounts, by OMB, that corresponds to the fund type (e.g., general, special). For expenditure accounts, this number is four digits and, for receipt accounts, this number is six digits.
- Transmittal code—Each account in MAX has a one-digit code that identifies the nature or timing of the associated schedules as described in section 79.3.
- Fund code—Section 20.11 explains fund codes and the account symbols associated with each fund type.
- Subfunction code—OMB assigns each account a three-digit code that corresponds to the account's subfunctional classification (e.g., national defense, income security, agriculture). (See section 79.4\(d\) for further explanation of subfunctions and exhibit 79A for a list of functional classifications.)

79.3 Which transmittal code should I use?

The following codes are used to identify the nature or timing of the request.

Most requests that are transmitted to the Congress in the President's Budget are for appropriations for the upcoming fiscal year. These requests are normally reported under transmittal code 0.

| Transmittal Code | Title and description  |
|------------------|--|
| 0                | Regular budget schedules.  |
| 1                | Supplemental proposal. Use only for requesting supplemental CY amounts.  |
| 2                | Legislative proposal, not subject to PAYGO. Use for the effects of proposals requiring authorizing legislation where those effects are not subject to PAYGO. These include both discretionary proposals that are contingent on the enactment of authorizing legislation, as well as mandatory and revenue proposals that do not have a PAYGO impact, which are sometimes referred to as third scorecard (see section 20.3 ). Do not use for routine reauthorization of ongoing programs. |
| 3                | Appropriations language to be transmitted later. Use only with prior approval of OMB when language for a significant policy proposal cannot be transmitted in the budget.  |
| 4                | Legislative proposal, subject to PAYGO. Use for the effects of proposals requiring authorizing legislation that are subject to PAYGO. Do not use for routine reauthorization of ongoing discretionary programs or for an extension of a mandatory program assumed to be continued in the baseline (transmit 0).  |
| 5                | Rescission proposal pursuant to Title 10 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act. Use only for requesting rescission of CY amounts.  |
| 7                | Reserved for OMB use.  |
| 8                | Overseas contingency operations. Use only for amounts requested for BY through BY+9.   |
| 9                | Reserved for OMB use.  |

Separate schedules using non-zero transmittal codes are required to identify proposed authorizing legislation, supplementals requested in the budget, and items proposed for later transmittal under either existing or proposed authorizing legislation or their effect on the information presented in the regular schedule for the account. The combination of the regular schedule and the non-zero transmittal code schedule should display the condition of the account as it would exist if the Congress enacts the proposals.

When a supplemental proposal or legislative proposal involves a transfer between accounts, omit the transaction from the regular (transmittal code 0) schedules and display it in separate schedules for each of the affected accounts. See exhibit 79C for help in determining if your legislative proposal should be coded as a transmittal code 0, 2, or 4.

79.4 How do I request new accounts, changes to existing accounts in MAX?

The MAX database contains information on budget account titles and classifications and controls data entry. Among other things, it contains information on:

- The account title, as it will be printed in the budget;
- The Treasury and OMB identification codes;
- Fund type;
- Subfunctional classification;
- Budget Enforcement (BEA) category;
- Congressional subcommittee assignment;
- Type of account (e.g., expenditure, receipt, trust, special, revolving);
- Whether more than half of the collections are user charges;
- Whether the account will finance payments for individuals;
- Whether the account has obligation limitations;
- Citation of legal authority to establish the account;
- For receipt accounts, the receipt type and source category; and for offsetting receipts, character classification; and
- Where the account will be printed in the budget (see section 95.3).

(a) General

If you need to request a new account or make changes to an existing account, please contact your OMB budget representative. If requesting a new account, you will need to provide information on all the items in the bulleted list above except for the identification codes.

For new deposit funds, only a subset of the information above is required, as deposit funds are not included in OMB's MAX database. Provide the citation of legal authority and any proposed account number and title. OMB will coordinate with Treasury to reserve an account number in Treasury's database.

These classifications are discussed further below. OMB will coordinate with Treasury, as required, make the necessary changes, and notify you when the change is complete.

If you want to propose new financing methods, reorganizations, account mergers, or changes to the program activity structure in the program and financing schedule, OMB approval is required. You should submit requests for such changes by October 1, unless OMB specifies another date. If a change is dependent on pending decisions or results from late congressional action or other circumstances beyond your control, submit the request as soon as possible after October 1. If prospective internal reorganizations are likely to require budget structure changes, obtain OMB approval prior to implementing the reorganization.

Until requests are approved, base budget materials on the existing structure. If changes are approved, you must revise budget schedules and other materials accordingly.

(b) Fund type and code

OMB and Treasury will assign identification codes based on the type of fund involved and other characteristics of the proposed new account. The account symbol is based on the fund type. See section 20.11 for a detailed discussion of fund types.

FUND TYPES AND CODES

| Account symbol          | Type of fund                                    | OMB Fund Code | Treasury Fund Code |
|-------------------------|---|---------------|--------------------|
| 0000–3899               | General fund                                    | 1             | EG                 |
| 3800-3899               | Any receipt accounts here are clearing accounts |               |                    |
| 5000–5999               | Special fund                                    | 2             | ES                 |
| 4000–4499               | Public enterprise revolving fund                | 3             | EP                 |
| 4500–4999               | Intragovernmental revolving fund                | 4             | ER                 |
| 3900–3999               | Management fund                                 | 4             |                    |
| 3900-3959               | Consolidated working fund                       |               | EC                 |
| 3960-3999               | Management fund                                 |               | EM                 |
| 8000–8399 and 8500–8999 | Trust non-revolving fund                        | 7             | ET                 |
| 8400–8499               | Trust revolving fund                            | 8             | TR                 |
| 6000–6999               | Deposit fund                                    | N/A           |                    |
| 90xx                    | Assigned by OMB to designate allowances         |               |                    |
| 991x–998x               | Assigned by OMB for certain merged accounts     |               |                    |

(c) BEA category

For each expenditure or receipt account, OMB assigns a BEA category (e.g., discretionary, mandatory) that designates how the budgetary resources of the account will be classified for budget enforcement purposes (see section 81.2 for a summary of budget enforcement data classifications). In cases where the account will contain resources classified in more than one BEA category, OMB will identify the account as a "split" account.

(d) Functional and subfunctional classification

OMB normally assigns each expenditure and offsetting receipt account a single subfunction code (see exhibit 79A for a list of functional classifications). In rare cases, an appropriation account may be split between two or more subfunctions. If the subfunctions are in the same function, the code of the function is used (e.g., 500, 550, etc.). If two or more functions are involved, the code "999" is used. Annually, OMB consults with CBO and other relevant budget and appropriation committee staff members regarding functional and subfunctional classification. This process, which is required by statute, typically occurs from October through December (see section 25.3).

(e) User charge classification

OMB designates whether any collections related to the account are user charges, as defined in section 20.7\(g\). Receipts, offsetting receipts, and offsetting collections may be classified as user charges.

(f) Receipt type

Receipt accounts are classified either as governmental receipts or offsetting receipts. If the receipts associated with a particular program have more than one classification, separate receipt accounts must be established (see section 20.7 for a full discussion of receipts).

(g) Source category code

Each receipt type has a number of unique source category codes that enable MAX to produce tables needed for the budget. OMB assigns the codes when a new receipt account is established by determining the receipt type for the account and selecting an appropriate program category within that receipt type (see exhibit 79B for a list of source category codes).

(h) Payments for individuals

An account finances payments for individuals if it pays for Federal Government spending programs designed to transfer income (in cash or in kind) to individuals or families. To the extent feasible, this category does not include reimbursements for current services rendered to the Government (e.g., salaries and interest). The payments may be in the form of cash paid directly to individuals or they may take the form of the provision of services or the payment of bills for activities generally financed from personal income.

(i) Account mergers

Two or more Treasury accounts may be merged into a single budget account with a single set of budget schedules:

- When two or more appropriation accounts are replaced by a single appropriation. Sometimes the amounts in the old accounts are merged by law into the successor account.
- When the budget proposes to merge several appropriations into a single account and request budget year appropriations on that basis. The objective of such proposed mergers is to permit greater flexibility in achieving program goals by managing and budgeting at a higher level of aggregation. This objective must be balanced against other needs, including the need for public disclosure and review and control by the President and the Congress.
- For revolving fund feeder accounts, which are appropriation accounts whose budgetary resources are available only for transfer to specified revolving fund accounts. They should be merged into the revolving funds to which they relate, and the amounts included in the feeder accounts should not be separately identified.
- In some situations, OMB may choose to merge two or more Treasury accounts for presentation purposes. In the case of mergers involving trust funds and Federal funds, a trust fund may be merged into a Federal fund presentation (and vice versa) only if the amounts in the trust fund (or in the Federal fund) are too small to round to at least a million dollars.

The data is displayed in the Appendix in a single budget account, but the underlying TAFSs continue to be accounted for separately pursuant to law, unless Congressional action merges them.

79.5 What are the MAX schedules?

The following table lists the MAX schedules:

| MAX schedule | Description                                      | A-11 section number  |
|--------------|--|----------------------|
| SCHEDULE A   | POLICY ESTIMATES OF BUDGET AUTHORITY AND OUTLAYS | 81   |

79.6 What MAX changes were made this year?

The following table lists the MAX changes that will affect the FY 2019 Budget:

| MAX schedule, line code, and title  |   | Change |
|---|---|--------|
| Combined Schedule X, including schedules P (Program and financing), A (Policy), and S (Baseline) |   |        |
| 0910  | Appropriations used to liquidate unpaid lease obligations     | Add    |
| 0911  | Total new obligations, unexpired accounts; and lease payments | Add    |
| Schedule N (Special and trust fund receipts)  |   |        |
| 6010  | Unliquidated contract authority, end of year balance          | Add    |
| 6099  | Uncommitted trust fund receipt balance                        | Add    |
