Statement from OMB Director Mick Mulvaney:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Review of Designations Under the Antiquities Act”

This executive order directs the Secretary of the Interior to conduct a review of certain Presidential designations or expansions of designations made under the Antiquities Act. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include ensuring that covered designations reflect input from State, Tribal, and local stakeholders affected by such designations. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2017. The agency anticipated to be impacted by this executive order is the Department of the Interior.
