

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Promoting Healthcare Choice and Competition Across the United States”

This executive order directs the Secretaries of Treasury, Labor, and Health and Human Services to consider proposing certain regulations to expand access to several health insurance options. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include the possibility for increased competition and a reduction in excessive consolidation throughout the healthcare system, as well as expanded access to alternatives to expensive, mandate-laden insurance. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2018. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of the Treasury, Labor, and Health and Human Services, and the Federal Trade Commission.
