

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Resuming the United States Refugee Admissions Program with Enhanced Vetting Capabilities”

This executive order directs the Secretary of Homeland Security to resume adjudicating applications for refugee resettlement, subject to new, improved vetting processes. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include the resumption of refugee admissions, subject to enhanced vetting designed to protect our nation from foreign nationals who seek to do us harm. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2018. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of State, Justice, and Homeland Security, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence.
