

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Supporting Our Veterans During Their Transition From Uniformed Service to Civilian Life”

This executive order directs the Secretaries of Defense, Veterans Affairs, and Homeland Security to draft and implement a plan to provide seamless access to mental health treatment for our Nation’s veterans in the year following their transition from uniformed service to civilian life. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include a renewed focus on providing our Nation’s veterans with the high-quality care they deserve, particularly in the year following their transition out of life in the uniformed services. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2018. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Defense, Veterans Affairs, Homeland Security, and the Executive Office of the President.
