

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishing the President's National Council for the American Worker”

This executive order establishes the President's National Council for the American Worker, among other things. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include providing a coordinated process for developing a national strategy to ensure that America's students and workers have access to affordable, relevant, and innovative education and job training that will equip them to compete and win in the global economy. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2018. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Commerce, Labor, Treasury, Education, and Veteran Affairs, the Small Business Administration, the National Science Foundation, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Office of Science and Technology Policy.
