

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Taking Additional Steps to Address the National Emergency With Respect to Significant Transnational Criminal Organizations”

This executive order amends the definition of “significant transnational criminal organization” set forth in subsection (e) of Section 3 of Executive Order 13581. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include addressing the national emergency with respect to significant transnational criminal organizations declared in executive order 13581, in view of the evolution of these organizations as well as the increasing sophistication of their activities. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2019. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of the Treasury and Justice.
