

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Evaluating and Improving the Utility of Federal Advisory Committees”

This executive order requires executive departments and agencies to conduct a review of their federal advisory committees and to eliminate or propose eliminating any such committees that have become obsolete or for which the cost of operation is excessive in relation to the benefits to the Federal Government, among other things. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include eliminating obsolete or unnecessarily costly aspects of the Federal Government. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2019. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include all executive departments and agencies that utilize a current federal advisory committee as defined by the terms of the order.
