

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

Statement from Acting OMB Director Russ Vought:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Maximizing Use of American-Made Goods, Products, and Materials”

This executive order directs that the Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council consider proposing for rule and comment an amendment to the Federal Acquisition Regulations concerning the circumstances in which certain materials shall be considered to be of foreign origin, among other things. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include supporting American workers by promoting the buying of American-made goods, products, and materials to the maximum extent under law. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2019. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Defense and Commerce, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the General Services Administration, and the Executive Office of the President.
