

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

February 2, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Robert Fairweather

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Creating a Comprehensive Regional Framework to Address the Causes of Migration, to Manage Migration Throughout North and Central America, and to Provide Safe and Orderly Processing of Asylum Seekers at the U.S. Border”

This executive order directs the preparation of the United States Strategies for Addressing the Root Causes of Migration and for Collaboratively Managing Migration in the Region, expands lawful pathways for protection and opportunity in the United States, and restores and enhances asylum processing at the border. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include implementing a multi-pronged approach toward managing migration throughout North and Central America that reflects our highest values as a Nation. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of State, Justice, Homeland Security, Health and Human Services, and other relevant executive departments and agencies.
