

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

March 22, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Robert Fairweather

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Guaranteeing an Educational Environment Free from Discrimination on the Basis of Sex, including Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity”

This executive order requires the Department of Education to review existing regulations and other agency actions for consistency with Administration policy regarding Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, including the obligation of educational institutions receiving Federal financial assistance to guarantee an environment free from sexual harassment and sexual violence. Following the required review, the Department shall consider taking actions to rescind or revise prior agency actions that are inconsistent with Administration policy. The Department shall also consider taking enforcement actions to advance Administration policy. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include ensuring that all students are guaranteed access to an educational environment free from discrimination on the basis of sex, including discrimination in the form of sexual harassment and sexual violence, and discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Education.
