

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

April 5, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Termination of Emergency with Respect to the International Criminal Court”

This executive order revokes Executive Order 13928 and terminates the national emergency declared therein. This executive order also lifts the suspension of entry of immigrants and nonimmigrants meeting the criteria set forth in Executive Order 13928. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include an improvement in United States foreign relations with respect to the International Criminal Court. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of State, the Treasury, Justice, Homeland Security, Commerce, and other relevant Departments and agencies.
