

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

May 17, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Revocation of Certain Presidential Actions and Technical Amendment”

This executive order revokes a number of Trump Administration executive actions and directs all agencies to take immediate steps, consistent with statutes, to rescind or abolish agency documents and policies, personnel positions, and task forces or other entities based on the rescinded executive actions. It also makes a technical amendment to the civil service rules to effectuate Executive Order 14003. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include ensuring that agency actions and personnel reflect current Government policies and priorities. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include all applicable executive departments and agencies.
