

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 6, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Executive Order on Protecting Americans’ Sensitive Data from Foreign Adversaries”

This executive order revokes and replaces Executive Orders 13942, 13943, and 13971 and takes additional steps necessary to address the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13873 of May 15, 2019 (Securing the Information and Communications Technology and Services Supply Chain). Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include taking additional steps to address threats to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Commerce, State, Defense, Justice, Homeland Security, and the Treasury; the Office of the United States Trade Representative; the Office of the Director of National Intelligence; the General Services Administration; and the Federal Communications Commission.
