Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled
“Blocking Property and Suspending Entry into the United States of Certain Persons Contributing to the Destabilizing Situation in the Western Balkans”

This executive order (E.O.) updates E.O. 13219, as amended by E.O. 13304, by expanding the sanctions criteria to include a broader geographic scope, sanctionable activity related to modern challenges including corruption, and sanctions for actions that obstruct key institutions and international agreements developed since 2003. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this Executive Order include addressing threats to regional security in the Western Balkans as well as to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of the Treasury, State, Defense, Homeland Security, and Justice.
