

Jeff Peck joined the Tiber Creek Group in May 2001, and was Chairman of the Tiber Creek Group (formerly Peck Madigan Jones) between 2007-2018. For more than a decade, he worked on client matters ranging from financial services, legal reform, antitrust, energy, election reform and a diverse range of large coalitions engaged in multi-year issue advocacy campaigns.

Between 1987 and 1992, Jeff served as General Counsel and Majority Staff Director of the Senate Judiciary Committee, chaired during this period by then Senator Joseph R. Biden, Jr. (D-DE). During his tenure at the Judiciary Committee, he played a leading role on four Supreme Court nominations (Robert Bork, Anthony Kennedy, David Souter and Clarence Thomas), proposed constitutional amendments to ban flag burning, the Civil Justice Reform Act of 1990 and a number of civil rights, intellectual property and antitrust issues.

Between 1993 and 2000, Jeff was the Managing Partner for Government and Regulatory Affairs for Andersen Worldwide (the parent company of Arthur Andersen and Andersen Consulting). In that capacity, he managed a range of legislative and regulatory initiatives on behalf of the accounting profession.

Between 2017 and 2020, Jeff served as Treasurer and Vice Chairman of the Biden Foundation.

In 2020-2021, Jeff worked as a Senior Volunteer Advisor to the Biden Transition.

In June 2021, President Biden nominated Jeff to be a member of the United States Holocaust Museum Council (Board of Trustees).

The author of numerous articles, Jeff has also been quoted in more than 200 news articles and publications including USA Today, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Financial Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, The San Jose Mercury News, The Houston Chronicle, Reuters, Bloomberg, CFO Magazine and Fortune Magazine.

Jeff is currently an Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business. Prior to teaching at Georgetown, Jeff spent several years as a Senior Lecturing Fellow at Duke University School of Law, where he taught a course on Federal Policymaking with former Senator Ted Kaufman and Professor Chris Schroeder. Jeff also has been a guest lecturer on numerous occasions at the undergraduate level at American University and the University of Maine.

Jeff graduated Duke University (1979) summa cum laude and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He received his law degree from the University of Chicago Law School (1982).
