

Waivers/Authorizations for WHO/OVP Employees

The table below covers all waivers/authorizations granted to WHO and OVP employees since January 20, 2021 pursuant to the following federal government ethics rules: (1) Executive Order 13989 (Jan. 20, 2021); (2) 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1); (3) 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d); or (4) 5 C.F.R. § 2635.503(c).

Employee Name	Date Granted	Type of Waiver/Authorization	Nature of Waiver/Authorization
Lucius, Kristine	June 11, 2021	EO 13989 Waiver	May participate in particular matters in which she lobbied for former non-profit employer, the Anti-Defamation League, and the specific issue area in which those particular matters fall.
Mortisugu, Erika	April 27, 2021	EO 13989 Waiver	May participate in particular matters in which she lobbied for former non-profit employer, The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, and the specific issue area in which those particular matters fall.
Slavitt, Andrew ¹	January 20, 2021	18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1) Waiver	May participate in particular matters that may affect financial interests in several companies as part of efforts to address the COVID-19 pandemic. These companies include: Town Hall Ventures, L.P., Town Hall Ventures II, L.P., and Town Hall Ventures GP, LLC. Note: This waiver was limited during Mr. Slavitt's White House employment and did not allow participation in particular matters where these companies were a party or represented a party.
Sullivan, Jacob ²	April 9, 2021	5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d) Authorization	May participate in meetings and communications about national security issues with the New York Times, from which he received a payment of $250 for an article published in September 2020.

¹ Mr. Slavitt served in a temporary capacity as a Special Government Employee and is no longer employed by the White House Office.

² Although serving as National Security Advisor and a member of the National Security Council (NSC) staff, Mr. Sullivan is included in this chart because he is formally employed by the White House Office.