Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “The White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence and Economic Opportunity Through Historically Black Colleges and Universities”

This executive order establishes the White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity through Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include improved coordination of Federal policies, programs, and services to advance equity, excellence, and opportunity at HBCUs and for the communities they principally serve by coordinating a Government-wide policymaking effort to eliminate barriers HBCUs face in trying to provide the highest-quality education to a growing number of students. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Education.
