Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity for Black Americans”

This executive order establishes the White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity for Black Americans and the Presidential Advisory Commission on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity for Black Americans. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include improved coordination of Federal policies, programs, and services to advance more equitable and fair educational outcomes for Black students in America to ensure that our education system can be an engine of opportunity. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2022. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Education.
