

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

January 7, 2022

Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishing the United States Council on Transnational Organized Crime”

This executive order establishes the U.S. Council on Transnational Organized Crime (USCTOC), which brings together six key departments and agencies involved in counter-transnational organized crime efforts to facilitate information sharing and ensure that the U.S. Government effectively leverages all appropriate tools to counter the threats posed by transnational criminal organizations. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include addressing threats to national security by improving information sharing and interagency coordination to counter the top threats posed by transnational criminal organizations. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2022. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of the Treasury, State, Defense, Homeland Security, Justice, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence.
