

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

June 27, 2022

Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Advancing Equality for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Intersex Individuals”

This executive order directs Federal agencies to strengthen protections for LGBTQI+ individuals, children, families, and seniors. It directs agencies to prevent exposure to so-called “conversion therapy”; strengthen services for LGBTQI+ children and families in the child welfare system; improve the Federal collection of sexual orientation and gender data; address LGBTQI+ homelessness and housing insecurity; improve supportive services at schools to support LGBTQI+ students; establish a new clearinghouse to share resources on improving equity for LGBTQI+ youth in the juvenile justice system; conduct a review of how eligibility standards for Federal family assistance programs impact LGBTQI+ households; and expand access to counseling and other supportive services for families with LGBTQI+ children. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include improving the health, mental wellbeing, safety, academic attainment, and financial security of LGBTQI+ children and households. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2022. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Housing and Urban Development, Health and Human Services, Education, Justice, the Treasury, and State, and the U.S. Agency for International Development.
