

President Biden's Economic Plan is Working for Washington

Several economic indicators demonstrate robust economic progress in Washington since President Biden took office. Below are key metrics—such as state employment, unemployment insurance claims, GDP, supplemental poverty, and vaccination rates—that help us interpret the current moment and highlight our progress on economic recovery and enhanced support for workers and families.

Employment:

- Since January 2021, the Washington economy has added 230,400 jobs (7.1 percent of January 2021 employment in Washington). The state economy has recovered 93 percent of the jobs lost between February 2020 and April 2020.
 - In the largest sector (trade, transportation, and utilities), the Washington economy added 22,400 jobs between January 2021 and April 2022.
 - In the second largest sector (government), the state economy added 19,900 jobs.
 - In the third largest sector (educational and health services), the state economy added 12,200 jobs.
- The state's unemployment rate fell from 6.3 percent in January 2021 to 4.1 percent in April 2022.
- Initial claims for Unemployment Insurance in Washington fell 80 percent since President Biden took office, from around 19,000 at the start of the Administration to about 3,800 for the week ending May 28, 2022.
- The quits rate, a measure of labor market strength (since people generally quit jobs to take better jobs), rose from 2.1 percent in January 2021 to 3.0 percent in March 2022.

GDP:

- Washington's real GDP grew 8.3 percent at an annual rate in the 4th quarter of 2021.
 - This is a substantial acceleration compared with growth in 2020, when Washington's real GDP decreased by 0.2 percent Q4/Q4, and compared with 2019, when Washington's real GDP grew by 4.2 percent Q4/Q4.
 - In the largest sector (information), real GDP grew 24.6 percent at an annual rate in the 4th quarter of 2021, after growing by 13.5 percent in 2020 and 13.4 percent in 2019.
 - In the second largest sector (financial services and real estate), real GDP grew 10.7 percent at an annual rate in the 4th quarter of 2021, after growing by 1.8 percent in 2020 and 3.1 percent in 2019.

Small Businesses:

- Residents of Washington applied to start more new businesses during President Biden's first year in office than in any other year since the series started in 2005.

- Congressional Republicans' tax plan would raise taxes on 44.6 percent of small business owners in Washington, and 78.9 percent of small business owners earning less than $50,000 per year. The typical affected small business owner would see their taxes increase by $1,300.

Poverty:

- Washington's Supplemental Poverty Measure was projected to be 5.7 percent in 2021, lower than 10.6 percent on a comparable measure in 2018.
