

President Biden's Economic Plan is Working for Wyoming

Several economic indicators demonstrate robust economic progress in Wyoming since President Biden took office. Below are key metrics—such as state employment, unemployment insurance claims, GDP, supplemental poverty, and vaccination rates—that help us interpret the current moment and highlight our progress on economic recovery and enhanced support for workers and families.

Employment:

- Since January 2021, the Wyoming economy has added 12,600 jobs (4.6 percent of January 2021 employment in Wyoming). The state economy has recovered 86 percent of the jobs lost between February 2020 and April 2020.
- The state's unemployment rate fell from 5.1 percent in January 2021 to 3.3 percent in April 2022.
- Initial claims for Unemployment Insurance in Wyoming fell 72 percent since President Biden took office, from around 1,000 at the start of the Administration to about 290 for the week ending May 28, 2022.
- The quits rate, a measure of labor market strength (since people generally quit jobs to take better jobs), rose from 3.3 percent in January 2021 to 4.2 percent in March 2022.

GDP:

- Wyoming's real GDP grew 4.6 percent at an annual rate in the 4th quarter of 2021.
 - This is a substantial acceleration compared with growth in 2020, when Wyoming's real GDP decreased by 8.1 percent Q4/Q4, and compared with 2019, when Wyoming's real GDP grew by 2.6 percent Q4/Q4.

Small Businesses:

- Residents of Wyoming applied to start more new businesses during President Biden's first year in office than in any other year since the series started in 2005.
- Congressional Republicans' tax plan would raise taxes on 54.3 percent of small business owners in Wyoming, and 81.7 percent of small business owners earning less than $50,000 per year. The typical affected small business owner would see their taxes increase by $700.

Poverty:

- Wyoming's Supplemental Poverty Measure was projected to be 7.5 percent in 2021, lower than 10.6 percent on a comparable measure in 2018.
- The Supplemental Poverty Measure for children under 18 in Wyoming was projected to be 4.7 percent in 2021, lower than 10.4 percent on a comparable measure in 2018.

Vaccinations:

- The number of fully vaccinated people in Wyoming has increased from approximately 0 in January 2021 to 295,000 as of May 2022.
