

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

March 15, 2023

Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Reducing Gun Violence and Making our Communities Safer”

This executive order directs agencies to take actions to promote the safe storage and transportation of firearms, facilitate the enforcement of background-check and red-flag laws, and improve support for victims of gun violence. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include promoting measures to reduce gun violence, and helping individuals and communities harmed by gun violence. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Defense, Education, Energy, Health and Human Services, Homeland Security, Justice, Transportation, and Veterans Affairs.
