Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Authority to Order the Ready Reserve of the Armed Forces to Active Duty to Address International Drug Trafficking”

This executive order provides additional authority to the Secretaries of Defense and Homeland Security to respond to the national emergency declared in Executive Order 14059 relating to international drug trafficking. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis effects on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include advancing our Nation’s ability to respond to the threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States posed by international drug trafficking. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis effects on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Defense and Homeland Security.
