Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Exemption of Paul H. Maurer from Mandatory Separation”

This executive order exempts Paul H. Maurer—the current Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) of the George W. Bush Protective Detail in Dallas, Texas—from the mandatory separation provisions for Federal law enforcement officers based on their age. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include permitting SAIC Maurer to continue to serve in his current position, providing continuity of operations and allowing him additional time to impart his expertise to others. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Homeland Security.
