Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Continuance of Certain Federal Advisory Committees and Amendments to Other Executive Orders”

This executive order would continue certain Federal Advisory Committees that otherwise would expire at the end of this fiscal year, and would make minor amendments to prior executive orders establishing two Committees. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this order include ensuring the continuity of Committees of experts that advise the Executive Branch on a wide range of important issues. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the General Services Administration, as well as the various agencies that house Committees that are being renewed.
