Rebuilding. Moving forward.

President Trump is helping Rhode Island rebuild to Washington Bridge after the Biden Administration failed to finalize the agreement.

01 / RHODE ISLAND

In March 2026, the Trump Administration executed $221 million in grants for Rhode Island's Washington Bridge project.

The bridge was found to have critical failures including severed tie rods, failing post-tensioned concrete girders, and in need of a complete replacement.

The Biden Administration announced the funding but failed to sign the agreement, as one of roughly 3,200 unobligated grants promoted, but never fulfilled, by the Biden Administration.
